REFUSE EDUCATION

HOLY ROLLER REFUSES TO SEND CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

Judge Bailey Fines Two Women $5
Each Under Provisions Of The Compulsory Education Law

Arguing that "worldly wisdom is foolishness in the sight of God," Mrs. J. E. Johnson, who lives below Waynesburg refused to send her children to public school, and when brought before Judge Bailey in county court here Thursday, she gave that as her reason for not obeying the compulsory education law, under the provisions of which she was cited to court by County School Inspector W. H. W. Reynolds. Mrs. Johnson is said to be a Holy Roller, and she gave the above as Scriptural cause for not educating her two children who are between the ages of 7 and 12. She came into town accompanied by five small children, the balance of her brood being under school age. Mrs. Mary Hall was also arrested on a similar charge. Judge Bailey fined the two $5 and costs. Mrs. Johnson asked the court to send her to jail but Judge Bailey, who for 15 days has been securing the money, at the end of which time, he said that he would have her brought in and placed in jail if she did not pay the fine.

William Mobley, a Crab Orchard negro, was held to the grand jury under $50 bond on a charge of deserting his infant children, which is now a felony. He is said to be working in Garrard. Will Adams went on his bond.

The case against Ray Boone, who was charged with obstructing the public highway, was continued.

The charge against Ella Vandever, colored, of using abusive and insulting language and "calling out of her name" Mrs. Humphries, was continued on account of an absent witness.

George C. Hughes, aged 72, of the McKinney section charged with indecent exposure of person, was dismissed.

Strike May Be Averted

Wilson's Strong Hand Seems To Have Warded Off Crisis

With the announcement on the part of the railroad brotherhoods late Thursday that passage of the proposed eight-hour law would be regarded as a satisfactory settlement on their part the belief grew in Washington that means had been discovered to prevent the nation-wide railroad strike. Both the Senate and House took up consideration of the legislation today and when finally passed by both houses, the measure will be rushed to the president for his signature. Little opposition is being manifested by the republicans. The railroads insist that in addition to the eight-hour law the rest of the president's program must be passed before the situation will be acceptable to them and the passage of the eight-hour law alone may precipitate a court fight on their part.

HANSON—CLAY

At the home of the bride in the Moreland section on Wednesday, Miss Ella S. Hanson, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henson, was united in matrimony to M. D. Clay, of Houston, Va. The groom is a prosperous automobile dealer of his home town. The two had been sweethearts for years and the announcement of their marriage does not come as a surprise to their immediate friends. Mrs. Clay will be married in the West End of the city, where she has a large circle of friends.

CUPID'S DOINGS

Charles Thompson, aged 18, and Miss Pearl Scarborough, both of the Southern end of the county, were joined in wedlock's holy bonds by Judge James P. Bailey at the courthouse Wednesday.

William Turner and Miss Roscoe Noaks were married at the bride's home in the East End by Rev. Brock on the 30th. Both are popular people of their section.

DIXIE ROKK CLUB ENTERTAINED

Miss Anne Davis McKinnis entertained the Dixie Rokk Club at her home on Logan avenue in an attractive style Thursday evening. Fruit punch and ice cream made delightful refreshments. Mrs. Harry Hill scored the most games. In addition to members of the club the guests were Miss Mary Bruce, Mrs. W. J. Dozier, Mrs. Carl Carter, Mrs. Robert Carter and Miss Mary Early.

COL. DINWIDDIE ROBBED

Col. John B. Dinwiddie, the silver-tongued auctioneer of Moreland, had $12 or $15 taken from his trousers the other night. On retiring he left his pants on a chair by the side of his bed. When he awoke next morning they were gone. Later they were found on the porch and his wife gazed. The marauder was clever enough to leave the colonel some $75 in checks.

M'KECHNIE LEAVES M'KINNEY

The many friends formed during their sojourn at McKinney will learn with regret that Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKechnie have returned to Burnside to reside. Mr. McKechnie retains his interest in the McKinney mill but his partner, Mr. Vaughan, of Burnside, will manage the McKinney enterprise while he runs the mill at his old home.

SELLS SMALL FARM

Real Estate Dealer A. B. Florence, of this city, sold for his father, J. C. Florence the Thomas Oaks farm, south of town to R. H. Hoskins, of Bell county. There are 33 acres in the farm, which lies almost on the crest of Hall's Gap, and is considered a nice little place.

Met At Mt. Moriah

Christian Sunday School Convention
Had Delightful Session.

The Lincoln County Christian Sunday School Convention was held on Tuesday, August 29, at Mt. Moriah, with Rev. D. M. Walker, president presiding. Inspiring addresses were delivered during the day.

The devotional exercises were conducted by the Mt. Moriah church. Rev. A. H. Baugh, of Hustonville, gave an interesting address on "The North Middletown Church Institute." The Cradle Roll Department and "How to Observe Cradle Roll week" were discussed by Miss Emma Hays. Mrs. H. D. Phillips, who is a wide-awake Sunday School worker, gave a splendid talk on "The School of Methods," which she attended in Lexington in June.

Two of the most interesting features of the day were the addresses on "The New Standard of the Bible Efficiency," and "Seeing America," by Rev. Walter E. Frazee, our state worker, of Louisville.

Rev. L. N. Bowling, pastor of the Mt. Moriah church, delivered a splendid address on "The Present Status of the Rural Church." Rev. Bowling claims that the Rural church should occupy a place of prominence, but that it is hindered by the lack of energy, financial matters and incompleteness of rural life. Mr. Bowling is very much interested in the Rural Churches and is willing to do all in his power to help raise the standard of the Rural Church.

Mr. H. G. Skiles, cashier of the Crab Orchard Banking Company of Crab Orchard, was among the speakers of the day and added much to the program.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the dinner hour by the ladies of the Mt. Moriah church.

To the Roll Call of Schools by Rev. Frazee, ten churches responded with sixty-three delegates and twenty-seven visitors.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Rev. D. M. Walker, President; Mr. H. G. Skiles, Vice-President; and Miss Emma Hays, secretary. The next convention will be held at Crab Orchard.

Crab Orchard.

Hon. D. B. Edmiston, of Louisville, came this week to see his brother, Mr. John Edmiston, who is growing very feeble.

Mrs. Kate Slaughter Carson and Misses Rosa and Mary, of New Orleans are with Mrs. Claudia Holman. Mr. John Carson, of New Orleans joined his family here at noon Wednesday leaving with them for their home at 5 P. M.

Mr. Skiles' brother from Shelbyville is his guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Skiles entertained the Junior Endeavors at their home last Friday afternoon. Thirty-four sweet little tots gathered there and indulged in games, races and talks from 3 to 5 P. M. Then they were treated to a large dish of fruit ice, which they certainly enjoyed. Mrs. George Stephenson and Misses Mayme Holman and Mary Shepherd Messer assisted Mrs. Skiles in the entertainment. Those parents who fail to send their little ones to this junior work are certainly robbing their children of great advantages for Mrs. Skiles and Mrs. Stephenson are exerting themselves to teach them everything they can and things their busy mothers don't take time to tell them. In a few years these little ones will know more about religion than many grown-ups.

A man by the name of Spears, of New York went speeding thru town in his auto some days ago at sixty-five or seventy miles per hour. Police Judge James P. Bailey attempted to halt him without avail so he telephoned ahead to Mr. William Riggs, Marshal at Lexington, who arrested and fined Mr. Spears sending a check to Crab Orchard for $28.20. He was riding in a seven passenger Buick car. You had better be careful how you drive thru our little city or the marshal will get you sure.

Mrs. George Lyne, who has been visiting her mother in Havesville for a couple of months has returned. Her mother has been very ill but is improved.

Mrs. Bogie, of Lexington, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. L. Collier, this week.

Dr. Burgin, Mrs. Nan Elder and Miss Lucille Burgin motored to Lexington and Richmond last Thursday. Upon nearing home they had a puncture. The doctor has tried to repair the thousand miles in his car and this is his first accident. He is a most careful driver.

Mrs. Gover and Shirley motored to Lexington Wednesday to look up a house preparatory to moving there to put her son, Sherry, who has been in the army, to rest. Mr. Farris left Friday for a visit to relatives at Silver Creek and Richmond. She will be absent for about two weeks.

Miss Mayme Holman won the popularity prize given by the Millette Show. A cabinet containing one set of silver knives and forks, large and small spoons, napkin rings, salt and pepper shakers, sugar spoons, pickle forks and a butter knife. Miss Jewell Goodwin was second in the race.

Mrs. Nancy Adams, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. Louis Bell.

Baby girls came to reside at the home of Mr. Estes and Mr. Murphy, this week.

Mrs. Charles Rutledge fell and broke her ankle a few days ago. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. M. E. Fish has been quite sick. Dr. Harmon was called to see her three times Tuesday. She seems better at this time.

Mrs. James Manuel has been real sick for over two weeks. Dr. Jones attended her.

Mr. Thomas Mannuel and wife, of Gravel Switch, motored here Tuesday and were guests of his brother, James Mannuel.

Mr. Arthur Stewart has typhoid fever. His son, Walter is about over with it. A brother of Mr. Stewart's near by depot is very low with the same disease and his recovery is doubtful.

THIS CONCERNS YOU IF YOU ARE AN I. J. SUBSCRIBER

The Interior Journal regrets to be compelled to announce that on and after October 1, 1916 its subscription price will be $1.50 a year.

This step is made absolutely necessary if the paper is to be published at a profit, and unless it is published at a profit, it cannot be published at all. Plain white paper, upon which the I. J. is printed, has almost trebled in price in the last six months. Newspapers all around us increased their subscription price as the cost of white paper went up, but the I. J. held down to $1 a year as long as it possibly could. The Richmond papers, the Harrodsburg papers, the Danville papers and scores of others have been selling at $1.50 a year for some time.

In order to make this advance in price as easy as possible on its many subscribers, the I. J. will give them ample time to protect themselves if they so desire, at the old $1 rate. Subscriptions for as many years in advance as the subscriber wishes to pay for, will be received at $1 a year, up to October 1st, next. After that date, $1 will pay for the paper for eight months only; the rate for six months will be 75c, and for three months 40c all subscriptions being payable strictly cash in advance, paper stopping when time for which it is paid has expired.

Now is certainly the time to subscribe.

"Battle Royal"

Alleged To Have Enlivened Gay Fishing Party Down in Casey.

Middleburg, Sept. 1. News comes from Hatter Creek of a battle royal that is said to have been fought there several days since, two of the participants being highly esteemed minor officials of the county, of the small cabinet order. It seems, as reports go, that the belligerents had gone fishing and as is customary on an occasion of that kind had taken along a sufficient quantity of booze to be used in case of snake bites. Things ran smoothly until they got rough, and they got still rougher till the air smelled of sulphur, and stones and clubs were brought into use. The battle occurred in the space of perhaps several hours. When the smoke cleared the only visible results were a few bloody noses and some bruises that were of but little consequence. No further trouble is anticipated, as peace is said to have been declared and the belligerents are in a position to go before the next grand jury and declare that it was only a "sham fight" and the officials mentioned were playfully acting as umpires.

Rodger Bros. mill at Teddy, this county, burned Friday night. The loss is pretty heavy as they did own an extensive business in shingles and rough and dressed lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. McD. Fogle motored to Turnersville Sunday to hear Rev. Gabbert preach and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murphy.

W. P. Kincaid, a specialist for several crops of tobacco in this section last week at from 10 to 12 cents.

Bill Richardson, a Yosemite youth was arrested and lodged in the jail at Liberty on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. John Spears. It seems that Richardson, who makes a specialty of general deviltry went to the home of Mrs. Spears in the absence of her husband and raised a racket with her little boys. When Mrs. Spears remonstrated with him he turned on her and ran the whole push into the house which he played very well. The police were called and he was taken before Judge M. L. Sharp, who decided that he was worthy of a scholarship in the state's reformatory at Lexington and everybody said "good."

HEATH SEVERANCE A HERO The part played by Heath Severance, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Severance, of this city, in the attempted rescue of the little Lewis baby who was drowned at Crab Orchard early last week, deserves more than passing mention, and was inadvertently overlooked in the chronicle of the horrible affair at the time. After the colored man had dragged the body of the baby from the lake, into the boat, he proved totally inefficient and was unable to row toward the shore. Realizing that every moment was precious, if the child was to be resuscitated, young Severance leaped into the water, took the body of the baby for an hour and a half, and made a splendidly successful effort to bring back the spark of life, but without avail. Young Severance has been highly commended by all who have learned of his quick action in endeavoring to save the life of the little one.

Somerset Fair Fine

Lincoln Sends Big Crowds And The Horses Get The Blues.

The crowd at the Somerset fair Thursday was estimated at 7,000 to 8,000 and Lincoln county people composed a considerable portion of it. The excursion that ran from Danville to Somerset was crowded when it left McKinney and by the time it had taken on crowds at King's Mountain and Waynesburg, standing room was above par. Not only did Lincoln county furnish her full quota of people, but she sent down a lot of horses that proved themselves bread winners. Among them were Calvin C. Carpenter, E. P. Carpenter, Collins A. Moore, Charles T. Sandridge, Stuart Sandridge and John B. Dinwiddie. The rings were all well filled with a good class of stock and the races were close and exciting. In the $400 trot or pace Min Buster drove Homer Baughman, raised by John S. Baughman, of Boyle. Mr. Baughman won the race, taking the three of the four heats. Lawrence Rogers, of Danville, won the first heat with Walter Stone. The running race for plug horses created much interest, as did the half mile dash for thoroughbreds. There were close finishes in both. Pari-mutuals were operated on the grounds and the sports patronized them with liberality. In the roadster ring Bob Mitchell, of Harrodsburg, won first money with the gelding that came second to Senator's Hubble's mare in the big roadster ring at the K. of K. Mr. Mitchell also defeated Pope in the double team roadster ring, as he did here.

He was accompanied by Congressman Helm. They found the election of Wilson, and that the Democratic prospects in splendid shape all thru this section. Col. Evans says that factional politics within the party have all been laid aside and every democrat is looking solely to the success of Woodrow Wilson and the ticket in November. Col. Evans says that there is no doubt of the election of Wilson, and that Kentucky and the old Eighth district will go Democratic by old-time majorities. Col. Evans was well pleased with conditions in Lincoln, where he found democrats solidly for the ticket, with no disaffection, and all anxious to see this county go Democratic by a greater increased majority over the close figure of last year.

HUSTONVILLE GRADED SCHOOL Hustonville, Sept. 1.

The Graded School of Hustonville, Ky., will reopen on Monday, Sept. 14th, 1916. We trust all parents, patrons and children may be present at the opening of school. All children both of common and high school grades should start to school on the first day and be regular in attendance that their work may count for the most possible to them in the present school year. We believe that we are beginning the greatest year in the history of our Graded and High School. May all try to make this statement true. We will have as teachers the seven teachers of the school, Mr. W. B. Reeves, Mr. Reeves comes to us from the Normal school of Richmond. He has had experience both in common and graded school teaching. We bespeak for him great success as teacher in our school. A fact worthy of notice is that our school is to have two teachers giving entire time to High School work. This we have not had heretofore. Our Board of Education has been most fortunate in securing the services of Miss Mamie Yancy as assistant High School teacher. Miss Yancy is already known to the school people of Hustonville and Lincoln county. She spent last year in the University of Tennessee, at Nashville and comes to us fresh from school with renewed energy and enthusiasm for school work. This added ability makes her a valuable addition to our faculty for the present year. The other teachers are the same as last year. Miss Kate Bogle, Primary; Miss Sadie Baughman, Intermediate; S. S. Robinson, Principal and Miss Anna Floyd, Music.
